Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Missouri, as follows:

Section A. Chapter 169, RSMo, is amended by adding thereto one new 2 section, to be known as section 169.143, to read as follows:

169.143. 1. Any school district employee or school board member
2 who knowingly makes a false statement or provides false information
3 in conjunction with a school district employee's application for 4 retirement benefits with the retirement system established in section 5 169.020, or any certification made regarding the retired employee's 6 employment status to the retirement system established in section
7 169.020, shall be guilty of a class C felony.

8 2. Any school board member, who knowingly votes to approve an
9 employment contract for an individual duly certificated under the law 10 governing the certification of teachers or administrators that contains 11 provisions designed with the purpose to evade the requirements of 12 section 169.560 limiting retired employees to five hundred fifty hours
13 of employment in any one school year and limiting retired employees
14 to receiving up to fifty percent of annual compensation without a 15 discontinuance in the required employee's retirement allowance, shall 16 be guilty of a class C felony.

17 3. Any school board member, who knowingly votes to approve an 18 employment contract for an individual duly certificated under the law
19 governing the certification of teachers or administrators containing 20 provisions to reemploy the employee of the school district after the

21 waiting period, as stipulated in 16 CSR 10-5.010 service retirement,
22 shall be guilty of a class C felony.
